Amendment to the Regulations of the 11th JUVENALE 2009

- Within one week after being informed that the author has been selected by the pre-jury for participation at the festival, a passport-photo indicating name, first-name and film title has to be mailed to macyvideo@utanet.at.
- In return you will receive your personal „SOMMERTICKET“ issued by the Austrian Federal Railway ÖBB, valid from 1st of July 2009 00.00 hours until 31st of August 2009 24.00 hours, which allows free transportation (2nd class) within Austria. Because of the validation of your ticket it is advisable not to arrive at the Austrian border before the 1st of July, 00.00 hours.
- Please note: All authors have to make arrangements and pay for their trip from and to the Austrian border themselves. Your „SOMMERTICKET“ will allow you to travel free of charge only within Austria.
- For all authors reservations in Maria Saal have been made. From the 1st of July until the 5th of July accommodation as well as daily breakfast, a 3-course-lunch and dinner-menu are being paid for by the organizer.
- The opening of the 11th JUVENALE takes place in Maria Saal at around midday, therefore all participants can comfortably move into their accommodation beforehand.
- The drive to the final event at the ATRIO-Center in Villach is being taken care of by the event-organiser.
- If some of the authors are interested in prolonging their stay in Carinthia for a holiday after the Juvenale, they are being asked to extend their reservation themselves.
- The „SOMMERTICKET“ of the Austrian Federal Railway ÖBB is supposed to be a small incentive for everyone to take a closer look at our beautiful Austria.

- The „SOMMERTICKET“ is a gift of
- This amendment to the regulations of the 11th Juvenale makes sure that equal opportunities also for authors from more distant parts of the world are being granted.
- In this context we once again would like to draw your attention to the fact that only those films will be presented, the authors of which are personally present at the festival.
